FDEA FAVORS $12 PER CAPITA, MAY CHANGE MEETING DATES

Endorses New School Code in Annual Meet Here

ATTENDANCE BIG

Every member of the First District Educational Association will have an opportunity to vote on the proposed change of the annual meeting date from the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving to the second Friday and Saturday following Christmas.

This action was taken Saturday morning in a business session which ended the association's annual two-day meeting here. A speech by Upton Close, lecturer and authority on the Far East, was the feature of the program Friday evening.

The association adopted a resolution favoring "the continuance of the new school code as it now stands for two years trial before advocating any radical changes and that we as an association agree that individual members shall see that our Senators and Representatives are informed in regard to our desires."

Want $12 Per Capita

Endorsing the $12 per capita, the association went on record as favoring "the adoption of a financial educational policy for the state that will make for greater permanency in educational planning throughout the state. We deplore the fact that under the present setup administrators are unable to plan constructively and wisely for the financial administration of their schools."

Resolutions of appreciation and cooperation were extended to President Wraether, to Secretary Hutton, to Supt. J. H. Richmond, to Harry W. Peters, to P. H. Perkins, head of the KEA, to the city of Murray and to Murray State College.

Officers elected for next year were: H. L. Smith, Paducah, president; Jack Gardner, Bardwell, vice-president; Everett Howton, Princeton, FDEA director; C. H. Gentry, Reidsland, KEA director. The next meeting will be held again at Murray State College, Secretary Patterson announced.

The following educators in Western Kentucky were appointed by the delegations committee to represent the FDEA in a delegation to the KEA which meets in April: Clyde Lassiter, Fulton county; Miss Vera Beckham, Hickman county; Dennis McDaniel, Hickman county; Jack Gardner, Carlisle county; Hickman Baldree, Graves county; Holland Rose, Marshall county; C. H. Arnett, Ballard county; H. L. Smith, McCracken county; Carman Graham, Calloway county; Herbert Smith, Lyon county; E. F. Glenn, Livingston county; Edward Blackburn, Caldwell county; and C. A. Hollowell, Crittenden county.

Miss Thelma Drinnon, Paducah, recently elected president of Principals and Supervisors of KEA and supervisors of elementary education in Paducah, said that the sectional department of the KEA would henceforth be composed of four divisions—the conference of elementary teachers; upper and intermediate sections; the primary division, of which Miss Nellie Mae Wymann, education instructor of Murray State College, is chairman; and Miss Bertie Mason, instructor in the Murray Training School is vice-chairman; and the conference of nursery and kindergarten units.

The resolutions committee as appointed by President Wraether is: J. O. Lewis, chairman; W. J. Caplinger, Arlie Townsend, Edward Blackburn, D. T. Cooper, V. M. Wallis, and Hardin Grover.

Changes Made in Relief Set-Up

Changes have been made in the relief set-up in Calloway with the stopping of federal funds. Most of the relief clients in the county have been transferred to W.P.A. work with the exception of the indigents, unable to work.

This group of unworkables comprise about 130 families and some relief will be continued to be given out of the state funds recently set aside for December direct relief. The state has $250,000 for this purpose. A minimum of relief will continue to be given to these.

Herman Doron has been transferred to W.P.A. commodity clerk and Miss Voline Pool has been dismissed in the changes made in the Murray offices.

W. B. Milstead With Kennedy & Swann Here

W. B. Milstead, for the past several years assistant cashier of the Dees Bank of Hazel, has resigned that position and accepted one with the Kennedy and Swann Tobacco Co. here as head book-keeper. Mr. and Mrs. Milstead have many friends in Murray who welcome them here and they also have a host of friends in Hazel who regret to see them leave.

Mr. Milstead is a former school teacher of Calloway county and has many admirers. He is an active member of the American Legion, has been a member of the Drum & Bugle Corps since it was organized, and last year was adjutant of Murray Post No. 73.

Should Rally To Governor

The Legislature that convenes in January will face a multitude of herculean tasks and, instead of knocking, why not stand solidly by and with the administration in its attempt to solve these problems. There is revenue to be raised to keep governmental agencies functioning; there is revenue to be raised to set up the machinery for and to create a fund to provide pensions for the aged; there is revenue to be raised to care for relief clients now off the federal relief roll; there is revenue to be raised to insure the $12.00 per capita, to continue road building, to keep state warrants at par. There will be moments of despair. But, if every patriotic Kentuckian will rally to their leader, things will work out for the best. We owe it to ourselves to work together for a better and a more glorious Kentucky; we owe it not only to ourselves, but to our people, our state, our nation, with equal degree of fairness and honesty of purpose and of effort.

Memorial Baptist Church to Hold Its First Services in New Building Sunday; All Invited

First Floor Completed; Many Are Expected; Brief Church History

The Memorial Baptist Church will hold services for the first time in its new building at Tenth and Main on Sunday morning, December 8. The first floor of the building is now completed, and will be used by the church until the main auditorium can be erected. The part of the building already constructed by the Memorial Church is a beautiful and commodious place, consisting of nine Sunday School rooms and an auditorium that will seat at least 250 or 300 people. All of the friends of the church are urged to be present on next Sunday, morning and evening, to look over the building and to take part in the services.

The members of the Memorial Baptist Church are planning for a great day on next Sunday. Sunday School will convene at 9:30 a. m. Competent and consecrated teachers will be in charge of all the classes. Supt. E. B. Holland, with Assist. Supt. N. F. Lassiter, will be in charge. The pastor will preach on themes appropriate to the occasion at 10:45 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. A large number of visitors are expected for the services. A cordial invitation is extended by the church and pastor to their friends in Murray and Calloway county, as well as those in other places, to attend these opening services. A special invitation is extended to those who have made offerings to the work, and have, in other ways, expressed their interest in it.

Organized Three Years Ago

The growth of the Memorial Baptist Church has been phenomenal. The church was organized three years ago with a charter membership of 66. The Rev. Cap Hubbard, then a student in Union University, Jackson, Tenn., was called as pastor and has been with the church ever since. The present membership is 180. The offerings of the Memorial Baptist Church last year, with no special campaigns or pledges, totaled $5,000. The work of the church has been greatly hampered because of the inconveniences of its temporary places of worship—in the former News and Truths building on the south side of the square and then the Ryan building on Main Street—but now that a beautiful building is under construction on one of the best lots in Murray, the people are encouraged to believe that even greater growth will be experienced in the future.

Special Offering Sunday

The church will make a special offering on next Sunday for the building program. Every member is urged to be present, and to have his offering to help carry on the building enterprise. The members of the church believe that through sacrificial giving and hard work they will be able to complete their new house, without any obligation whatever, within a very few years. Willing offerings from friends on the outside will be greatly appreciated. All the readers of this paper are urged by the church and pastor to attend the opening services next Sunday, December 8.

DURAN FAIR, 34, DIES SUDDENLY

Death Came From Internal Injuries 24 Hours After Car Accident

Duran Fair, 34 years of age, died suddenly and unexpectedly last Saturday afternoon about 24 hours after a car accident in which he swerved his truck to avoid hitting a car coming onto the highway in front of his machine. The accident occurred the afternoon before near Dexter while Fair, truck operator for the Murray Wholesale Co., was returning from a trip North of Murray.

The machine, driven by Fair, is said to have run up a bank as he jerked the wheel quickly to one side and to have toppled over on the side while at the same time the door opened and Fair fell out to be caught underneath. He was rushed to the Clinic Hospital and dismissed a short time later after an x-ray failed to show anything serious. He was returned Saturday morning where he died before most of his many friends had ever realized that he was serious.

Hundreds of friends joined the relatives in paying their last respects to one of Murray's finest young men Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The Revs. L. L. Jones, J. H. Thurman, and O. A. Marra were in charge of the services. Burial was in the Murray cemetery.

Fair was a member of the Locust Grove church and attended regularly there although he had never moved his membership. He was a member of the Albert Lassiter Sunday School class, one of the most regular and interested members.

He had been employed by the Murray Wholesale Company for the past six years and was a valued employee to be trusted in any capacity and capable of many services. He was a graduate of Murray High School where he was an outstanding athlete.

Surviving are his grief-stricken young widow, Mrs. Desires Jeffrey Fair, his mother, Mrs. Mike Fair, three brothers, J. B. Fair, Bob Fair, and Alphonse Fair, county, and two sisters, Mrs. W. V. Edmonds, Concord, and Mrs. Martha Jane Pool. The family formerly resided about three miles South of Murray but had lived in Murray for some time.

The pallbearers were: active Graves Sleds, Miller Robertson, Burle Cooper, James Huie, Sam Adams, and Carroll Lassiter, all of the Murray Wholesale Grocery Co., and honorary: Luther Robertson, Bob McCluskey, Albert Lassiter, T. L. Smith, Miss Opal Johnson, Charles Robertson, F. M. Perdue, Claude Miller.

$600,000 LABOR PAYROLL IN 10 YEARS, CONTRACT

Sum is Minimum Guarantee; Total Expected to Exceed Million

PLANT EXTENSION BEGINS IMMEDIATELY

Work has been started by the Murray Chamber of Commerce on the extension to the Hosiery Mill here which will permit the consolidation of the Paducah, Benton, and Murray plants of the old Paducah Hosiery Mill into one complete factory in Murray—to be known as the "Murray Hosiery Mill."

The new corporation, headed by Bernard Lichten of Philadelphia and L. Rubel of Paducah, has guaranteed to pay at least $600,000 in direct labor payroll in 10 years, in return for the construction of the extension by the Murray Chamber of Commerce. While the guarantee is $600,000 for 10 years, officials of the concern estimate that under normal circumstances the payroll should equal or exceed a million dollars in that time.

The construction of the extension was made possible by contributions from citizens, firms, and agencies of this city and neighboring communities. Carpenters, brickmasons, and other laborers have likewise made contributions in the form of donated labor.

The Murray Chamber of Commerce is urging that all persons interested in the speedy reopening of the Mill volunteer as much labor or money as possible. If the plan is to be a complete success, much donated labor must be secured. W. S. Swann, president of the Murray Chamber of Commerce said today. The new corporation hopes to open for business by the first part of January.

A general superintendent has been secured to have complete charge of constructing the extension. All persons interested in donating labor should apply at the building site. Monetary contributions will be received at the Chamber of Commerce office in the Gatlin building, across from the Bank of Murray.

Members of the board of directors of the Murray Chamber of Commerce who arranged for the consolidation: W. S. Swann, T. O. Baucum, Treman Beale, Karl Frazer, Vernon L. Hinkle, M. O. Wraether, Dr. C. H. Jones, Foreman Graham, and C. L. Sharborough. Others who assisted in the drive for raising the money, besides the above named were: Harry Sleds, George Hart, Luther Robertson, L. J. Close, Foreign Affairs Expert, Paints Future in Gloomy Colors

That the present industrial system—this modern age—will disintegrate just as surely as the feudal era crashed and that a new system will emerge swift on the heels of imminent world conflict were implications left by Upton Close, lecturer and world traveler, in an address entitled "The World, Past and Our Place in It" before members of the First District Educational Association in the Murray College auditorium Friday night.

Charging that the Italians were defeated by Ethiopia at Adowa in 1890 with rifles made in England, Close declared that "the beginning of the downfall of white man's dominance is to be dated from Adowa." Italy, he said, built itself up through the genius of Mazzini and Garibaldi, and Bismarck forged the iron of German strength.

The Triple Alliance resulted in the Triple Entente, a protective reaction. Europe was divided into two armed camps, and as a consequence the World War was a necessity. It grew out of the fever for colonial empire from which Italy and Germany were left out, he alleged, and it ended in a Mandates Commission with the League of Nations existing as a sanctimonious robber dressed in priest's clothes to hand the spoils of war over to England. In Africa, he disclosed, "France got the rest of the Sahara desert; Italy received Tunisia which she has already taken two years before the war; and England gained possession of every fertile river valley except the Congo."

In regard to the present Ethiopian situation, the lecturer stated that Mussolini is basing his whole campaign upon the assumption that if war is declared France will immediately go into revolution. Poland and Japan will jointly attack Russia, and England alone will remain to oppose Italy. Mussolini's legions in Libya will march swiftly to take the Suez Canal.

and England in a few months will disintegrate. Germany will then attack Russia, and England will let her attack to keep them off her own neck.

U. S. To Be Involved

The ultimate involvement of the United States, he said, will be in the Pacific in a war with Japan. Close (Joseph Washington Hall) dogmatically stated that his hearers could do nothing about the situation. Throughout his speech, he constantly referred to the superiority of the Eastern over the Western entity. The foremost inventions ushering in the ages of Western greatness were inventions of the East, he said. Gunpowder, the compass, the applied idea of printing originated in China, according to Close.

"The Japanese diplomat," he argued, "can outlie, outsmart, and out-trick the Western diplomat, and the latter knows it."

He stressed the view that England, the most pacific nation since the war, has suddenly been transformed into the most belligerent nation on earth. "Confucius, Jesus Christ, Plato, Voltaire, and Rousseau lived in ages of disintegration. Thus they found time to think, they saw the picture of the drama of empire, and it made of them geniuses. This age is passing as surely as the feudal age passed. Change is inevitable. We will come to the end of change when we come to the end of the world. This present system, in which Western civilization lives off the exploitation of the Mongol races is going to pass before your eyes and mine." Christendom, he said, has been the most cruel arbiter of Western and Eastern destinies. Power, and not Justice, has been the determinant of its strength.

Frequently the Ledger & Times is asked to send a paper out of the state by persons who ask us to charge it to them. The payment for foreign subscriptions must be cash in advance. To comply with postal regulations this is necessary.

MURRAY AUTO PARTS CO.

I want to say hello to all my old friends in Murray and dear old Calloway county. I arrived here Friday, 22-35. This is my second time to be in this place as most of you know. There has been the most wonderful change in this town that I ever saw since I was last here.

I told my daughter before I left home that I would be at home when I got to Avon Park and could go around to any place I wanted to. But when I got here I had to get a fellow to lead me around with a dog chain for a day or so before I would risk myself to be turned loose.

I know this is the most wonderful place I ever saw. I wish I could explain to you all the beautiful scenery that I can sit in my room and see from my window. My room is on the second floor, corner room No. 2. I sit here and look out and it comes to my mind how I would love for all my friends back home to see what I am looking at just now. Oh, well, the ones back home that have seen what I am seeing know there is no use for me to try to describe it to any one that has never seen it—that's that.

I sure do hope everyone back home is enjoying life there as I am here. This will be all for this time and if Joe doesn't pitch this in the waste basket I will write more later on.

My best regards to all.

CAMP MURRAY CHATTERS

By Earl Chambers

Among our distinguished visitors of the week was Major Dan D. Howe, U. S. Army, instructor of the Kentucky National Guard, Bowling Green. During his visit Major Howe favored local reserve officers with an interesting and instructive lecture on "Three Classic Decisions at the Marne". This officer's broad experience in the World War, the operations at Shanghai and the Infantry School were well reflected in this excellent presentation.

The Greyhounds dropped one tilt last Friday evening when Paul defeated them at the Reidland court. Company 117's net team is undefeated, however, by their first loss of the season and are hard at practice again after the Thanksgiving recess. For the second time this year Camp Murray has been the site of a basketball game, the Murray High School team.

Many local members spent Thanksgiving at home while those remaining in camp observed the day in a fitting manner. We were favored with an interesting and appropriate Thanksgiving service conducted by Bro. G. A. Marrs. This was followed by a dinner of the conventional turkey and cranberry sauce which reminds us again that our kitchen force is equal to almost any occasion.

Another project sponsored by the educational department, that of leatherracing, was a great success. It consisted of a two-act play "Cappy Explains" and an impersonation of the senior class. A reading was given between acts by Mary Margaret Roberts, and a song of the seniors was sung by the class at the conclusion of the program.

The freshmen are in charge of the next chapel program on Friday, December 6.

Junior Beale's side in the biology class won over Wilma Thwaitt's group by a 61 to 51 point. The losing side is planning an entertainment for the winners. It will be given in the near future.

For the first time in the history of Almo High School, there has been published a school paper. Suggestions were made for the name of the paper, but it seemed as if the "Loud Speaker" appealed to the majority of the school students. Arrangements have been made for the paper to be printed by the Ledger & Times. Every member in school seems to be exceedingly glad that they are fortunate enough to get a school paper—"C".

A representative from each of the classes met last week in order to increase the school spirit and encourage the basketball boys. In conclusion the Almo Blue and White Warriors won two games over Gilbertsville Friday night. The first team won by a score of 37-14. The lineup was as follows:

Almo (37) Pos. Gilville (14)
Stroud, 5 F. Brien, 3
Edwards, 4 F. Nall, 3
Lassiter, 9 C. Ruggles, 1
Boe, 16 C. Dowdy, 1
Culver, 3 G. Heath, 6
Substitutes: Almo—Scott, 2
The second team won by a score of 25-16.

Almo Defeats Hazel
The tide is now turning for the Almo Warriors. Their second victory was handed them Wednesday night by Hazel. Although a hard fight was put up by both teams, the scores for the Almo Warriors exceeded those of Hazel by one.

Wilma Thwaitt's side in biology seemed to be the unlucky side as they lost by a point to Junior Beale's group. The entertainment will be given in the near future.

Kirksey Hi News

Eagles Defeated Farmington, 36-19
The Farmington basketball team was welcomed as they came to the home of the Eagles at Kirksey Wednesday night, November 27. The Kirksey boys took an easy game from Farmington. The visiting team played good ball but they were overcome by the Kirksey team. The Eagles have played five games this year and still remain undefeated. Our second team also defeated Farmington.

Come See The Eagles Fight
There will be two games at Kirksey this week end, Friday night Hardin will play the Eagles. Every one invited. Admission reduced to five cents. Saturday night, December 7, the Eagles will meet the Sharpe High School team. This is the first time in several years Kirksey has met Sharpe in a basketball game. Sharpe comes with a good reputation and it is expected to be a good game. So if you enjoy a good basketball game, come to Kirksey Saturday night and see the Eagles win.

"First Commandment" To Be Staged Here With Local Talent in Roles

"The First Commandment" is a Biblical dramatization in which the most prominent people in this community are taking part. The production combines the finest of music, drama, lighting effects and costumes to give to Murray the most unusual and sensational type of entertainment that we have ever had. It is the dramatization of the most interesting and important events leading up to and connected with the giving of the Ten Commandments. It can only be compared to such productions as the gigantic motion picture "The Ten Commandments" and the well known Passion Play.

Judah will be portrayed by Lavern Wallis, Simon, by Charles Miller. The part of Moses will be portrayed by Zelma Carter supported by her brother, Hall Hood. Kohath, the faithful believer in Moses will be Mr. Pennebaker. The Wisemen who try to interpret Pharaoh's dream will be Dr. F. E. Crawford, Dr. E. B. Houston, and M. O. Wrathe.

We Don't See How He Does It

It is an unusual thing for a local man to be very much appreciated by the home folks. Ordinarily, a neighborhood boy has to go to distant fields of endeavor to accomplish something that earns him the approbation of the people back in the old home town. Particularly in this true in the phase of school athletics, where the winner who gets the plaudits today is handed a resounding chorus of Bronx cheers together with a basket of raspberries when he loses tomorrow.

Because we believe in handing out a few roses to the living, as they deserve them, when they can derive pleasure from their beauty and fragrance, we are publicly doffing our hats to Preston Holland, the home-town boy who has made good with the Murray High Tigers.

True it is the valiant Tigers haven't often won the championship of the Little Sixteen but beyond Paducah and Mayfield, which have many advantages over Murray, the Bengals have been about the most consistent team in the circuit. What we think Holland is especially to be praised for is his marked success with inexperienced players.

Scarcely a season passes but that the Tigers show more improvement between the first game and the last than any other squad in the conference. Murray, unfortunately, doesn't seem to produce a large number of players with natural ability. And the number of lads available each year doesn't give "Ty" any too many from which to choose.

The Murray team which lost to McKenzie here in the opening game last September was a pretty green aggregation of pickin' chasers. Few of the linemen had been under much fire even though there were some experienced backs left over from last year. As usual, prospects were gloomy.

However, the Tigers ended their season in a blaze of glory, winning their last four games, three of them over conference opponents and rating the "A" standing in the Little Sixteen. Despite the fact that injuries struck them hard in "mid-season" and they were soundly trounced, while crippled, by Mayfield and Bowling Green, two outstanding eleven, the Tigers never offered an alibi or let out a single whimper. They took their medicine and, when the hurt boys recovered, bounced back like a pair of new two dollar suspender.

We would not take any credit from the boys who actually win these victories on the field. They play hard for Holland because they genuinely like him. He has their trust and confidence and they know that he will fight their battles.

"Ty" doesn't molly-coddle his boys. We've heard him talk to them pretty straight. But they know he does it without malice, and because he wants them to win for their own sakes.

No coach can produce a winning football team without good material or a championship team without superior material. The test of a coach is what he gets out of the material he has. That is the only standard by which to judge him and on it we believe Murray has in Ty Holland, a home-town boy, the best football mentor in the Western Kentucky conference.

JUST JOTS

By Joe

The success of Southern Methodist University and Texas Christian University football teams at the serial game suggests that we and our Christian brothers will have some high-flying ministers in a year or so.

Mussolini objects to Uncle Sam holding up shipments of oil, cotton, copper and steel as a manifestation of neutrality, claiming that such are normal articles for the sustenance of a people. We suppose our Italian friends would therefore classify a 75-millimeter gun as a Christmas toy for little Antonio.

It has been 19 years (believe it or not) since the Jotter entered the University of Kentucky as a meek freshman and last Thursday was the first time he ever saw Kentucky beat Tennessee playing football.

More than 100 persons in the United States lose their lives every day in the United States, on the average, in automobile accidents. Take a long drive and it's no mystery to see why. One rather wonderful why the number isn't greater. People who wouldn't get in an airplane for a large sum of money take risks in cars that no aviator would think of chancing. Cutting corners on blind curves, driving on the left side of the road, taking in the scenery, busting red lights and stop signs, passing on curves and grades—continually taking chances until the law of probability will be flouted no longer and then—a long, long stay in the hospital if not sudden death. We don't believe those few possible minutes you might save are worth a gamble on eternity.

The story is told that a lady of color in Hazard, Ky., was advising a dusky sister, confused by Amendment No. 1 in the November election. "It's like this, honey," she said: "If you wants red likker, vote 'Yes'; and if you wants white likker vote 'No'."

Mayfield's council has set the liquor license at $5,000 a year. It would be impossible to sell booze at a profit in Mayfield—legally—at least.

Another scientist who participated in the invasion of Tutankhamen's tomb, in defiance of the ancient curse written on the walls of that doctory king's burial place, is dead of a mysterious malady. Such things are what makes superstition live on and on.

Japan's activities in China convince us that the Nipponese not only believe in but practice the idea of "whole hog or none."

Best sign of returning prosperity: bandits are resuming robberies of country banks.

An exchange remarks that while Mrs. Livermore may claim to have shot her young son while unstrapping it is its opinion that she committed led that horrible act whileayed up.

This may be heresy for a newspaper man to say it, but every family with a youngster would always know just exactly how much longer it was to Christmas if there wasn't a periodical printed in the entire land.

The play that the Ladies Aid gave recently went off with a boom! There was a nice crowd out, although there were several who attended the free play at Almo.

Mrs. Louis Ernstberger and Mrs. Treva McDaniel entertained their eight year old sons with a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Louis Ernstberger's. Tommie Ernstberger and Wayne Lee McDaniel received several gifts and prizes were given away. Miss Bonnie Lee Brown guessed how many grains of corn in a quart fruit jar and Evelyn McDaniel won a prize as also did Mary Anna Skages. The little honorees were the same age, eight years old. Candy and apples were served. Notice Sportsmen!

Now that the quail season is in I am appealing to the sportsmen to be reasonable and stay within the bag limit. Twelve birds are enough and should satisfy anyone.

Remember the other fellow is entitled to a "break" as well as yourself. And so are the future generations.

And most important of all leave seed for next year out of each covey.

Let me suggest that it is important to ask permission from the land owner when possible. Respect him and he will respect us. Let's cooperate for better fishing and hunting.

Report law violators to your warden. He will appreciate and keep it in confidence.

Respectfully,
Geo. R. Oury

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

Tobacco Allotment Cards
The 1935 allotment cards are ready for delivery but producers should not request this card until he is ready to use it. These cards, if lost, cannot be reissued for some time and one will be delayed in delivering if he should lose his card. A producer must appear in person for this card.

A number of tenants are coming to the office asking if they get a share of the 1935 rental check. The rental check on tobacco has always been for the land owner except a cash rent tenant. The 1935 checks now being issued are rental checks. There will be only one adjustment on the 1935 crop and that will be made about the middle of 1936 and that the 1935 tenant will share in.

This is Annual Report time for all County Agents and to date a hurried check-up shows this office had 20,353 office calls during the past year. A summary of the year's work will appear in this column soon.

Poultry
A number of poultry breeders are experiencing difficulty with their flock this fall. This is largely due to the fall rains that enabled the parasites to get a strong hold. Diseases are causing trouble.

One of the best ways to fight both is to house properly. A poultry house should have a good circulation of air but free from all draft. The best way to accomplish this is to have the opening in the front of the house so arranged so as to have a steady flow of air.

into the house. Usually this can be accomplished by having center windows or curtains open rather than the end windows in the front of the house. Be sure to keep the floor dry as possible. Keep well covered with straw or other floor covering. The number of birds in a house should be three and one-half to four square feet of floor space per bird. In a house 20x20 one should never put more than 125 birds.

Mother has gone and left us. Dad feels so all alone. The little ones will miss Grandma's covey.

We older ones her sweet hellos. Her place will always be vacant. But the memory cannot be taken of her love and hope and faith for the building for a better race. May we follow the path she has led us and at the end of that perfect day.

She will be so glad to see us and know she has led the way.
—Mrs. J. C. Harrell,
daughter of Mrs. W. S. Tolley

Card of Thanks
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kind words and deeds through the sickness and death of our dear mother and companion, also express our thanks and appreciation for the many nice flowers, telegrams, and letters of sympathy. We also wish to thank those who furnished the music and Bros. Marrs, Prichard, Blankenship, and Judge Phillips for their kind words.

May God bless you all.—W. S.

The New Concord net team will take on Clifton Brown's Almo five at Concord Friday night, December 6. This will be the first encounter of these teams this season. Both teams are made up of small players with lots of fight and a close, exciting game is expected.

The dope favors Concord by a few points. Concord defeated Faxon by 4 points; Faxon won over Almo by 5 points. Kiskey defeated Almo about 20 points, and won from Concord by 5 points.

The game will begin about 7:00 and will be followed by a game between the second teams of the two schools.

The home economics class prepared a Thanksgiving dinner Wednesday for the class and entire faculty. They carried out the color scheme of brown and yellow.

Two new stoves have been acquired. One for Mr. Lovins' room and one for Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Churchill and Mr. Walston are planning to exchange home economics and agriculture classes some time, in order that the boys may learn something of what home economics is and the girls some project in agriculture—that will benefit them.

The civics class has been divided into sides and a contest has been started. The winning side is to be entertained by the losers.

The seventh and eighth grade have started an answer box. Any one missing a question in class writes the answer three times and places them in the box. At the end of the week their grades are checked accordingly.

A Christmas program is being planned by the teachers of the lower grades and Mrs. Williams.

Weed Crop 4 Per Cent Above, 1934

Kentucky's total production of tobacco, of all types, in 1935, is estimated at 260,570,000 pounds in the November crop report issued here by the Kentucky Office of the U. S. Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates. This would be about 4 per cent more than the 250,000,000 lbs. produced in Kentucky in 1934, and 29 per cent less than this State's average annual production of 369,218,000 lbs. during 1928-1932 inclusive.

Types of which the producing area lie either wholly or partly within Kentucky and which therefore are of direct interest to Kentucky growers are estimated as follows, by entire type areas, regardless of state boundaries—burley 247,732,000 lbs. compared to 233,827,000 lbs. last year; Green River (air cured from both Owensboro and Henderson districts) 15,800,000 lbs. compared to 15,750,000 lbs. last year; compared to 15,850,000 lbs. compared to 15,700,000 lbs. last year; Henderson fired "stemming" 3,690,000 lbs. compared to 4,060,000 lbs. last year; Hopkinsville-Clarksville-Springfield dark fired type 78,540,000 lbs. compared to 78,315,000 lbs. last year; and Paducah-Mayfield dark fired 25,299,000 lbs. compared to 28,320,000 lbs. last year. The United States entire 1935 tobacco crop of all types compared to 1,045,600,000 lbs. in 1934 is estimated at 1,300,036,000 lbs. during 1928-32 of 1,432,845,000 lbs. 1934 and an average annual production of 1,300,036,000 lbs.

Olive Boulevard Is Progressing Rapidly

The work is progressing rapidly on Olive street boulevard, leading from the men's dormitory of Murray State College to Twelfth street. Workers have already poured some of the concrete for the curbs, the surfaces having been shaped by the laborers. This project will require four months for completion and will cost $14,000.

The completed project will feature two 5-foot walks, with a 4-foot grass plot between each walk and the road; two 24-foot drive-ways, and a 22-foot grass plot between the drives, according to Clifton Key, general foreman of construction work on the boulevard. There are 45 P.W.A. workers on the job at all times.

Murray will be able to boast of one double-lane boulevard when the drive street extension is completed.

The Music Hour

By Evelyn Angell

The oboe as a solo instrument was presented to a warmly receptive audience in a recital of unusual musical interest when Prof. Franklin P. Inglis, oboist and musicologist of the music department of Murray State College gave the second concert in the 1935 winter series on Tuesday, December 3. The oboe is seldom heard in recital, and this fact coupled with the sympathetic assistance of the piano and the faculty string quartet gave admirable variety to the program. Prof. Warren Angell at the piano gave a fine interpretation of the accompaniments, and the faculty string quartet, composed of Prof. William H. Fox, first violin; Prof. Earle Connette, second violin; Marcia McEwen Fox, viola; and Prof. Arthur T. Meyer, cello, provided an interesting and varied background for the appealing and melancholy melodies of the oboe.

Professor Inglis displayed technical skill and artistry throughout the program, and with such unusual instrument combinations as the quartet and quintet numbers he provided a most interesting auditory experience for Murray's concert goers.

The Concerto in G Minor for oboe by Handel opened the program. The purity of style in the classics was represented here with the beautiful melodies of the oboe. Professor Inglis demonstrated the range of melodic and technical possibilities of the oboe through the varied movements of the Concerto—Grave, Allegro, Sarabande, and concluding Allegro.

Another of the classic masters made a contribution to the enjoyment of the evening in the delightful Mozart Quartet for Oboe and Strings. This combination is indeed rare, but most charming. At times, the oboe tone with its sweet leading melody, especially in the high register, gives almost the effect of a string instrument. The second movement, the Adagio, admirably demonstrated this characteristic, with the oboe taking up a high, sustained part after an introduction by the strings.

The third group of three short numbers gave well-chosen contrast. The Schumann Romance was perhaps most outstanding for the effective phrasing and quiet mood so well portrayed by Professor Inglis.

The favorite of the audience for the evening seemed to be the Hebraic Lied of Rimsky-Korsakoff because, as someone was heard to remark, it was the kind of melody that one always associates with the oboe. This haunting Eastern melody, reminiscent of the old modes gave a hint of modern mood. The American composer, Walter Piston, provided another modern number with Gigue, from the Suite for Oboe and Piano, a number with humorous effect—a touch of fireworks, contradicting the usual feeling of lingering melancholy associated with this reed instrument. Professor Inglis was called back by the enthusiastic audience.

A modern of moderns, it can truly be said, supplied the harmonies of the final Quintet number, for Oboe and Strings by Arnold Bax. The faculty string ensemble rendered capital assistance in both of these string-accompanied groups—the Hebraic Quartet and the Bax Quintet. The sombre tone of this composition by Bax was relieved by an occasional soaring melody rising out of the sonorous background. Muted strings gave a beautiful contrast to the oboe melody. The Allegro giocoso, the last movement, was unbelievably gay, done in a colorful spirit, following the previous somberness, and formed a flourishing conclusion to the evening.

Murray High P. T. A. Holds Regular Meeting

The Murray High P. T. A. opened its regular December meeting with the singing of the P. T. A. song led by Mr. Moser.

Following the prayer led by Mr. Moser, a silent prayer was offered by the audience for Dr. O. B. Irwin, a member of the Board of Education and a faithful servant to the advancement of education in our school.

At the business meeting it was voted to contribute $30 to the band for the purchasing of three rugs to improve the acoustics of the band room. At the conclusion of the business meeting, it was announced that the sixth and eighth grades had won the banners for the largest number of mothers attending.

Mrs. Leland Owen, chairman, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, A. B. Austin, who gave a very vivid and interesting talk on "What a Teacher Should Be."

The program was concluded by

TIGERS SNAP OUT OF IT TO WIN
OVER GROVE 12-0 IN FINAL TILT

The Murray Tigers made one of the most complete reversals ever seen on the Murray field Thanksgiving Day to come out of a first half in which they were outplayed and passed and out fought to go into a second half in which they completely overran their superiors of two quarters to win 12-0.

Murray slashed the visiting line to shreds the third quarter with two marches that consumed the period and the Parisians handled the ball only long enough to recover a fumble and to kick.

Murray took the kick off on their 25-yard line to open the half and marched to the 12-yard stripe with Dunn and James Rudy Allbritten alternating for yardage from 3 to 10 yards at a clip. Following the kick, they again took the ball on their 46-yard line and marched back to the 8-yard line as the quarter ended, with Dunn and J. R. Allbritten alternating.

On the second play of the fourth, Dunn slipped off left tackle for the touchdown, taking it standing up. He repeated the feat a few minutes later after Clark had intercepted a Paris pass on their 30-yard line. Seven plays later he circled across the field to the deep right corner for 12 yards and the second score. Both his attempts at place kicks failed.

Murray made 12 first downs to Paris' 5 and eight of the 12 in the third quarter. Murray completed 2 of 6 passes for 20 yards and had one intercepted. Paris completed four of 14 passes for 35 yards and had three intercepts.

Murray was penalized 20 yards and Paris 10. Two penalties were called on each.

Easley and King led the Paris attack and each ran well and hard making several gains during the first half. Lewis entered the game the second quarter and made some excellent gains.

Both Womack and Baldwin were on receiving ends of the visiting passes but the accuracy of the passer was generally bad.

Dynamite Dunn was the luminary of the entire game. Besides slashing runs he intercepted one pass and showed a pass defense work once under the South goal and again deep in the North end of the field. His failure either time would have meant a Grove touchdown.

Adair, Wells, and Dick were seen to break into the Paris plays and the entire line figured in smothering visiting plays during the second half. Nothing seemed to work after the half for the Grove eleven. It was "watch Dunn" who led the Tigers in their 19-0 win last year and it seemed they had him watched during the first half as the only gains of notice was a 20 yard run in the second and the last play of the half in which he seemed to set the pace for the second half with a 12-yard gain.

James Rudy Allbritten came up to his knee or better and taking the game as a whole, he made more yardage than any man on the field. He was in on numerous defensive plays and figured

MURRAY TIGERS LOSE
HEAVILY BY GRADUATION

Murray will lose heavily by graduation this year. Each year the loss always seems to darken the Tiger outlook but usually some means of overcoming the graduation loss is found. The loss of each gradman will be severely felt.

The services of Captain Irwin, Rudy Allbritten, Clark, Bailey, Ward, Dick, Adair, Collier and Jones, will be missed. Some of the group have been regulars for two and more seasons and some were just developing into real gridgers with the close of the season. The loss will be felt heavily but Coach Holland's reserves and lettermen to return will again face the problem of building a reputable Tiger eleven to uphold the standards held throughout the past several years.

STATE TO PROVIDE FOR DIRECT RELIEF

Puts Up $250,000 To Care For 60,000 Unemployed Persons Temporarily.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 30.—With a $250,000 fund as a start, Kentucky today picked up the burden of providing direct relief for the state's approximately 60,000 unemployed dropped off the federal direct relief rolls effective tomorrow.

The allotment will be to care for the state's needy during the month of December, after which, in the words of Gov. Ruby Laffoon, "the problem will be one for the incoming administration to handle." The state allotment, made out of the $2,500,000 annual appropriation set aside for relief by the 1934 General Assembly, will be handled through George H. Goodman, Kentucky emergency relief administrator and works progress administration chief in the state. Goodman will portion out with the aid of a skeleton office force to be retained at federal relief headquarters in Louisville, the state allotment to the various counties on a proportionate basis.

The Governor's order making available the $250,000 specified that it was to be distributed to the counties for direct relief on a basis of the number of unemployed in each county in proportion to the number of unemployed in the entire state. It further set out that the handling of the fund was to be at no cost to the state.

Bratcher Sues
Sun For $50,810

A. S. Bratcher, Murray College teacher, filed suit in Calloway Circuit court Wednesday for $50,810 for damages alleged to be the result of a newspaper article published by that paper on November 16. Bratcher claims that as the result of the article, he was dismissed as a member of the faculty causing a loss in salary of $810 and that he was damaged and caused to suffer by humiliation to the extent of $50,000. The suit was filed by attorneys F. F. Agree and Judge J. C. Speight, Mayfield.

Bratcher claims that statements in the article were untrue. The trial will come up in the April term of court.

Twenty-five acres of land were terraced on the farm of W. S. Shanklin in Todd county, as a demonstration for a large group of the farmers.

Murray High Tigers To Face Tough
Net Schedule; Open Play Dec. 19th

Coach Ty Holland's Tigers will face a tough net schedule this year playing the best teams of the first district and making one trip into central Kentucky. Coach Holland began net drills Tuesday afternoon with a large squad that is expected to start off with about 60 aspirants.

Five letters remain over from last season around which Holland will likely build his five: Wells, Starks, Ward, McNutt, and Stubblefield. The team promises to be a well balanced one without stars and a strong net team with reserve strength is expected.

The season's schedule:
Dec. 19, Alto, here.
Jan. 10, Dawson, here.
Jan. 14, Benton (undecided).
Jan. 18, Lynn Grove, there.
Jan. 21, Fulton, here.
Jan. 24, Dawson, there.
Jan. 25, Morganfield, there.
Jan. 28, Paducah, there.
Jan. 31, Sedalia, here.
Feb. 4, Fulton, there.
Feb. 7, Mayfield, there.
Feb. 8, Danville, here.
Feb. 11, Sedalia, there.
Feb. 13, Lynn Grove, here.
Feb. 18, Mayfield, here.
Feb. 21, Memorial, there.
Feb. 22, Danville, there.
Feb. 25, Benton (undecided).
Feb. 28, Paducah, here.
Games to be arranged will also be played with the county teams, Kirksey, Alto, Concord, Faxon and Hazel.
Danville will represent one of the Tigers' hardest games for the five has been as far as the semifinals in the state tournament for the past four years. Others games in the first district combined with these and Memorial will give the Tigers probably their hardest schedule in years.

Opening Burley
Prices Under 1934

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 2.—Kentucky's money crop—burley tobacco—went on sale here today in the state tournament for the past four years. Others games in the first district combined with these and Memorial will give the Tigers probably their hardest schedule in years.

Although official figures were not available immediately, estimates of warehouse men and veteran market observers were that the initial day's burley bell sales of approximately 1,000,000 pounds would average around $18 per hundred pounds.

The opening days sales here last year averaged $20.90 per hundred, with 867,505 pounds bringing $181,748.

Grade for grade, today's prices were about on par with those received last December, but the predominance of low quality, leaf pulled down the general average.

Kirksey Kinklets

We sure have had some very cold and disagreeable weather during the past month. The other morning the thermometer stood 10 degrees above zero.

Reverend Davis, Methodist pastor, filled his regular appointment at Kirksey the 1st Sunday at 11 a. m. and also at night.

Thos. Swift had his house newly covered with Charlie Chambers and Dennis Alexander doing the work.

Bryan Staples is having a nice, large, feed barn erected. Charlie Chambers is supervising the work and when it is completed and painted it will beautify his place very much. Bryan has a little boy, Rob Dindell, that is very sick at this writing. We hope he will soon recover and be back in school for he is a bright little fellow just in the school age.

Will Norsworthy of Benton was in the neighborhood buying cows the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cain and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Hatcher, all of Detroit, spent Thanksgiving in this neighborhood. They left for home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Luther and daughter spent last Sunday as guests of Mac Boyd's folks.

Corn gathering will soon be over and sitting by the fire will be the order of the day or your loafers' club to pass the time away.

Ray Billington of Florida spent a few days with his father, Will Billington, of Backsburg. Ray came through on a truck and brought a truck load of Florida oranges also a large rattlesnake in a box with a screen wire over the top. The snake was a ferocious looking reptile and had not eaten anything for some time. Many crops of tobacco have already been stripped out and is ready to sell or haul off.

Mr. Snow has rented a place near Coldwater and will move in a few days. Mr. Tucker has bought the place vacated by Mr. Snow and will move in a short time.

Moss-Cunningham killed four hogs that weighed 1,562 pounds, so he and family will have meat and lard at their house this year. Christmas will soon be here.

Dill Thanksgiving Dinner

Thanksgiving day was celebrated in the old-fashioned style at Mr. Dan Dill's Thursday. Mr. Dill is a busy merchant, owning one of the largest general merchandise stores in the country, and his wife is one of the most industrious little women around here, but they some how took time to prepare a bountiful dinner which would almost have put to shame the Pilgrims' feast—and invited family and friends to partake of it.

The sixty-two guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dill and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dill and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Evin McDougal and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dill, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Dill, Mr. and Mrs. Put Vincent and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Barnett and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vincent, and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cullie Steele and Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Steele and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roper and three children, Mrs. Mary Tishel, Mrs. Martha Ann Garner, Mrs. Lucy Roper, Mrs. L. L. Spiceland, Mrs. Belle Arnold, Misses Mary Harriet Vincent, Grace Vincent, and Katherine Garner, and Messrs. Woodrow Dill, Newman Brandon, Solon Barrett, Dee Vincent, Chris and Granville Montgomery, Bud Barnes, Dee Vincent and Wade Garland.

The long table which seated 12 was lovely in green glass with cutlery to match.

The Dill brothers and a few others with the assistance of the radio, furnished the music for the occasion.

For seven or eight years Mr. and Mrs. Dill have been thus helping to make Thanksgiving Day a day of real life for their children and friends, and we hope they live to see many more such occasions.—Chatterbox

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would make me feel like I was just drawn around. I was so sluggish and 'so-las'. My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That first sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me."—If Cardui does not help you, consult a physician.

Food lime, or calcium as it is more properly called, must be in our foods. We not only require it for our bones and teeth, but quite recently scientific investigations have shown that it is necessary for nearly all of the body functions. Food lime is not found very abundantly in most foods and unless we include at least a pint of milk each day in our diet it is very likely to be lacking in amounts sufficient for body needs.

For your daily milk let us deliver at your door each morning our rich, pure, Pasteurized milk in sanitary bottles.

Faxon Hi News

With the Thanksgiving holidays over we are now back in school, willing to do some hard work for the short time between now and Christmas.

The program given Wednesday night, November 27, was a success despite very unfavorable weather conditions. A nice size crowd witnessed the three one-act plays presented by the junior and senior high school.

We wish to thank Miss Luna Elkins and Miss Lucille Hale for their cooperation in making the costumes and other things needed for the plays. We also want to thank Miss Rubene Roberts, a student, who directed one of the plays, and the numerous other students who worked on the program and helped to make it a success.

Shortly before the Thanksgiving program an interior scene was completed for the stage. This was due to the work and direction of Miss Edith Winchester. Several students aided Miss Winchester in painting and assembling the scene.

Athletics

Continuing their winning streak the Faxon Cardinals journeyed to Hazel Friday night, November 22, and took two-tilts from the Lions on their home floor. The varsity game was fast from start to finish with some nice offensive and defensive playing on both sides. The Cardinals took the lead in the first minutes of play and held it throughout the game. The final scores were Faxon 43, Hazel 20.

The lineups:

Faxon (43) Pos. Hazel (20)
Folwell, 13 F Miller, 9
Ross, 13 F Owen, 3
Barnett, 6 C Underwood, 3
Donelson, G James, 5
Gantt, 11 G Brandon

Substitutes: Hazel—Tucker, Turnbow, Paschall.
Referee, Baker.

The Cardinals reserves defeated the Hazel Cubs by a score of 28-24.

Friday night, December 6, the Cardinals play—the Lynn Grove

Wildcats on the home floor.

The game promises to be a close contest. This will be the last appearance of the Cardinals at home until after Christmas, and until they lose a very valuable player. Everyone come out and enjoy these games.

We were very sorry to hear of the misfortune of Raymond Morris, senior, who during the Thanksgiving holidays, received a broken leg. He will have to be out of school several weeks, but we just hope he gets along alright.

A faculty play is to be given in the near future, entitled "Plain Jane". Watch for the exact date and cast of characters of "Plain Jane."

Good Books
I like to read good story books
About green trees and running brooks

That always in the meadows green
Are casting shadows near the sun beams.

When I am tired and go to bed,
And the lamp is burning overhead,
I dream about the wonderful land
And take a trip to story land.

Books
When I get tired of play
I go in and take a look
All through the library.

Looking for a book.

I go back to my desk

And lay the book upon my desk

And go turning through the pages
For the story I like best.

I have found a sad story
Of a little boy who went to bed.

When he woke up in the morning
His little pet was dead.

This book tells of many wonders
Of the sea and of the land.

It tells of countries far away
And tells of things at hand.

When I get tired of play,
And I have no work to do
I'll get this dear old book
And read it through and through.

Your Neighbor's Boy

THAT BOY of your neighbor's will surely win success. In fact he is practicing for success now.

It is a good plan to practice if you want to learn to do anything well—so this boy is training for success.

His parents know that it costs money to keep this lad in clothes etc. They find that it is a good scheme to give this expense money to the boy and let him plan how to get the best results with it. If he spends too much one month he feels the pinch during the month that follows.

He is anxious to earn all he can. He thinks before he spends and a neat savings account is growing as further proof of the happy future of the boy.

And a program like that will bring larger success to any one who really desires to win. How about your own boy?
